

Background:

Since Netflix debuted in 1997, the streaming market started to soar in 2015 and 2016 with tremendous growth as they were gradually released in international countries. Netflix Movies and TV Shows Analytics Dashboard details the growth of international digital contents on Netflix over the years. It helps users understand and study the development of the streaming services ecosystem that is associated with each content/genre/maturity rating type/IMDB rating, segmented based on different factors.

About DataSet:

Data is consisted of two parts:

- 1) TV shows and movies available on Netflix as of 2021
- 2) IMDB rating score for movie and TV shows.

Both the data can be publicly accessed on an open source data platform named Kaggle.
